Capitol Watch: Freight is the Star of the House STRRA

By Anna Denecke, Associate, Blakey & Agnew, LLC

Despite a tumultuous series of weeks in Congress, in which Speaker John Boehner (R-OH) retired and his heir-apparent Kevin McCarthy (R-CA) bowed out of the race to succeed him, the House still approved their first long-term surface transportation proposal in a decade. More...

Carriers Face a Sea of Green

By William DiBenedetto, CBN Feature Editor

While ocean carriers and ports scramble to cut their greenhouse gas emissions to comply with various regulations, international organizations want them to do even more — by paying a carbon tax.

For example, as the nations of the world prepare for the major climate change summit COP21 in Paris later this... More...
